Decision in the "Stovepipe" Case. JUDGE SNELL SUSTAINS THE COMMISSIONERS IN REVOKING WHOLESALE LIQUOR LICENSES WHEN BEER IS DRANK ON THE PREMISES. In the Police Court this morning, Judge Snell rendered a decision in the case of Christian Maisak, charged with keeping an unlicensed | the defendant. The case of the motion for a bar, sustaining the action of the Commissioners | new trial in the matter of the finding of the in annulling wholesale licenses for violating the clerk, will be decided before the adjournment bond given at the time of issuing the license.

Maisak keeps what is known as a "stovepipe" house at the corner of 5th street and Massachusetts aveaue. For the purpose of carrying on the business he obtained a wholesale license for the business he obtained a wholesale license for the business he obtained a wholesale license for the decided before the adjournment of the court.

MINISTERS RESIGN FROM THE REFORM CLUB. The ministers belonging to the Reform club have sent in their withdrawals from membership because, as is well understood, the course which he paid the sum of $25, at the same time of the president of the club in publishing liquor entering into bonds in $200 not to sell liquor advertisements and in other newspaper matto be drank upon the premises, which fact, however, is not mentioned on the face of the license. When the case was argued several days ago, the defendant's counsel claimed that the Computation of the claimed that missioners had no authority to annul the license because the dealer sold beer by the "stovepipe" (a pint), contending that the law held here yesterday by the democrats to nominate the dealer sold beer by the held here yesterday by the democrats to nominate the dealer sold beer by the law held here yesterday by the democrats to nominate the dealer sold beer by the law held here yesterday by the democrats to nominate the dealer sold beer by the law held here yesterday by the democrats to nominate the dealer sold beer by the license because the dealer sold beer by the law held here yesterday by the democrats to nominate the dealer sold beer by the law held here yesterday by the democrats to nominate the dealer sold beer by the law held here yesterday by the democrats to nominate the law held here yesterday by the democratic properties. by subsequent laws. Mr. Padgett representing by subsequent laws. Mr. Padgett, representing the District, argued that the law had not been repealed, and that the Commissioners had such authority. The court held that the law under which the license was granted, and subsequently revoked by the Commissioners, had not been repealed by subsequent laws. A fine of $25 was imposed, from which an appeal was noted.

Votes for city sergeant, and nad no opposition. The vote for commonwealth's attorney was L. Marbury, 764; J. W. Holt, 689; J. K. M. Norton, 126, and W. E. Fendall, 27. This vote was quite a large one, over 1,500 votes being polled out of a total vote of 1,750 for Cleveland in

THE NATIONALS DEFEATED,-The Bostons captured a ball from the Nationals yesterday, their first victory of the season, by a score of 8 to 5. The home team made damaging errors at critical points, which perhaps lost them the game. Daily and Crane were the battery for the Nationals and did very well. They will the Nationals, and did very well. They will doubtless improve rapidly with practice. The Nationals will leave for New York to-night, and YOUR CHOICE SUIT, $15. Ballar, held here for murder, will be taken to The Tables Groaned with the good cheer which loaded them is on of the stock phrases of modern novelists. of the stock phrases of modern novelists. What is the center-piece of a well-spread board? A handsome vase of branching Celery. What is at the head of the table? A fine round of beef. What gives the ruddy hue of health to the cheek? Iron. These three are happily combined in Dr. Henley's Celery, Beef and Iron, one bottle of which contains the essence of many dinners at less than the cost of one. Richmond to-morrow by Sergeant Smith on a habeas corpus, issued by the court of appeals. FIGHTING THE APACHES.—Lieut. Clark, of Capt. Bought a Farm. John M. McDowell, one of the successful holders of ticket No. 46,799, in November drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, which drew $75,000, has invested a portion of his proceeds in a tract of land near Olivet and adjoining his home farm. He purchased 54 acres, more or less, being the Jack Kenton farm, of Albert Wheeler, for which he paid $40 per acre. Since he made his successful draw in Louisiana, John has been "shaving notes" at a lively rate, and has cleared within the past few nonths nearly $1,000. Just stop for a moment and estimate the profit he has made on that 50c. investment in Louisiana Lottery last fall! Mount Olivet (Ky.) Tribune, March 11.

CLEAR AND HARMLESS AS WATER.

CNATTANS' CRYSTAL DISCOVERY FOR THE HAIR—A perfectly clear preparation for restoring to gray hair its natural color and youthful appearance; to cradicate and prevent dandruff: to promote the growth of the hair and stop its falling out. It is entirely harmless and perfectly free from any poisonous substance, and will therefore take the place of all the dirty and unpleasant preparations now in use. Numerous testimonials have been sent us from many of our most prominent citizens.

In everything in which the articles now in use are objectionable, CRYSTAL DISCOVERY is perfect. It is warranted to contain neither sugar of Lead, Sulphur or Nitrate of Silver, it does not soil the clothes or scalp, is agreeably perfumed, and makes one of the best dressings for the Hair in use. It restores the color of the Hair "more perfectly and uniformly than any other preparation," and always does so in from three to ten days, virtually feeding the roots of the Hair with all the nourishing qualities necessary to its growth and healthy condition: it restores the decayed and induces a new growth of the Hair more positively than anything else. Price $1.4. stores the decayed and induces a new growth of the Hair more positively than anything else. Price, $1 a bottle.
